

Steven C. Borell, P.E.

Steve Borell is Executive Director of the Alaska Miners Association, an industry support organization with more than 1000 members. The AMA represents all aspects of the mineral industry before state and federal agencies, the State Legislature and U.S. Congress. He has more than 30 years experience involving exploration and operations in coal, placer and hardrock metal mining in various western and mid-western states, Canada and South America. He is a registered professional engineer in Alaska, Colorado and North Dakota.