

Harris, Peter W.

Brief Biography

Peter W. Harris was appointed Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of NovaGold Resources Inc. in October 2005. Mr. Harris brings over 30 years of mine design, development and operations experience to NovaGold. He has been involved with, and responsible for, the development and operation of mines on four different continents including mines in Canada, Papua New Guinea, South Africa and England. Recently, Mr. Harris was Senior Vice President, Project Development at Barrick where he was responsible for project development activities related to projects in the United States, Chile and the Dominican Republic.