

Vernon Craig

Vernon has been a resident of Alaska for more than three decades residing primarily in the Anchorage area, but exploring and enjoying the full extent of the wild regions of the state. He has been involved in marketing and sales for all of his professional life, and he has an MBA in business administration. He moved to Ketchikan in 2005 to join the Alaska Marine Highway as Marketing Director. In his spare time, he and his wife enjoy boating in the beautiful waters of the Inside Passage and living the Alaskan dream.